

L.O Can I write my own recipe for a family?

Part 1. To reach a consensus on the main ingredients for a family

What is a CONSENSUS?

A consensus is a general agreement.

A group consensus is a group discussion where everyone's opinions are heard and understood and a solution is created that respects those opinions.

Consensus Maps

Today we are going to work in groups of 4 and use consensus maps to help us reach a group decision.

Each person writes their ideas and opinions in their segment...

But only ideas that everyone agrees on are allowed in the circle.

What Does Every Family Need?

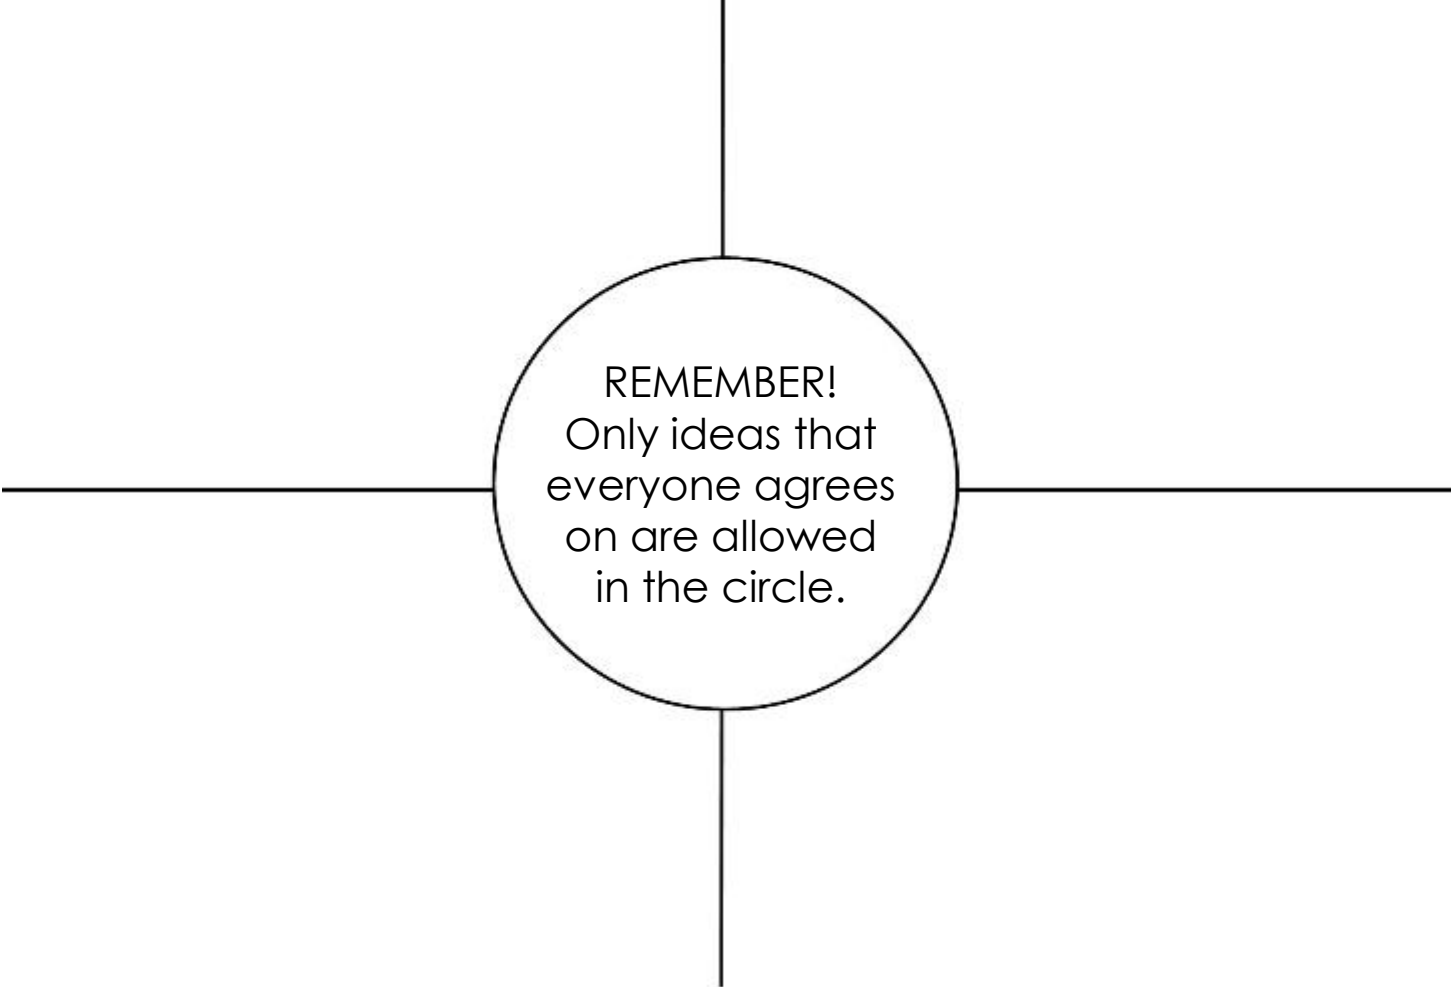

You have 10 minutes to fill in your section of your group consensus map.

Each person writes their ideas and opinions in their segment...

What Does Every Family Need?

You now have 10-15 minutes to discuss your ideas within your group and reach a consensus that can be recorded in the circle.

REMEMBER!
Only ideas that everyone agrees on are allowed in the circle.

Things to remember when working in a group!

Get along Respect others
On task only
Use quiet voices Participate
Stay in your group

Time To Reach A Class Consensus

We all agree that every family needs...

Plenary

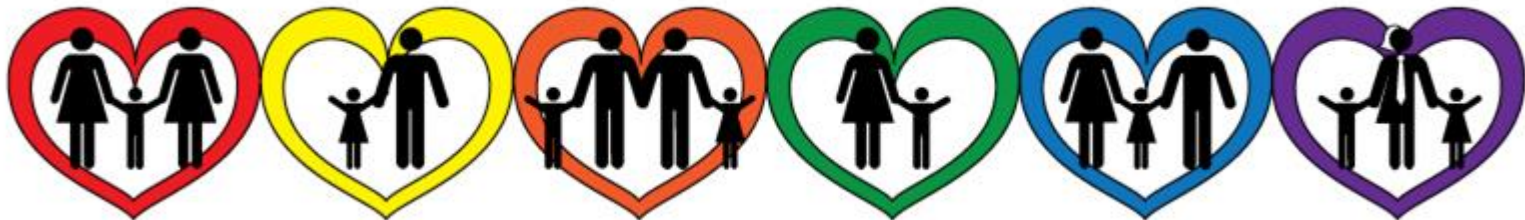

Now we have agreed what every family needs, we can write a recipe for a family tomorrow.

Can you think of some verbs and measures that are normally found in recipes?

Part 2

To independently write a recipe for a family

Features Of A Recipe

What must we remember when we are writing recipes? Look at the following recipe and think about the key features.

Today you are going to make an acrostic poem of what makes a good family using the format below.

Plenary- Peer Assessment

Swap recipes with a partner. Read their work and give them feedback by completing the following sentences.
